Jonah's Newest Message

NATURE OF THE BEAST

Jonah's message "Nature of the Beast" is a message for deep understanding of the nature of your makeup. Jonah explains why there is no contradiction between evolution and spirituality. Why do humans carry such strong emotions of anger, hatred, desire for war, and the desire to inflict self punishment? Jonah explains the difference between the 3rd and 4th dimension and where humans (the human body) came from. This is a powerful message to understand why you are the way you are with a sense of peace, and why you have the power to change it. Caution, this message may push your beliefs.

BEAUTY OF THE HUMAN SOUL

In this message Jonah talks about the true beauty of the human soul and how the soul works with the human consciousness. Jonah talks about the power of one's ability to create healing. Also addressed are soul aspects and the String Theory in relation to there is no separation in all that exists. Jonah presents a challenge and an exercise to understand the human soul.

A Message from Hossca

Dear Friends, one thing most of us have in common is the desire to heal, be free from pain, and the desire to fully understand our own pathway and purpose in life. How many truly understand what it takes to heal? Some people say I just turn it over to God. Some take herbs and vitamins to heal an ailment. Some obtain crystals and wear them around their neck or place them throughout their home. Some go to healers -- medical doctors, spiritual healers, energy workers, or something in-between. Some heal and others do not, some heal temporarily only to find the issue or pain returning. What allows for a total and deep healing? Can one experience the healing of the mind or emotions, without the physical body healing? These are questions I had myself in the early 80's, when I first began practicing Tai Yi.

My beloved Tai Yi teacher whom I call Chinese Master, (I only call him this when I speak of him, never when I have spoken to him in person) would spend countless hours teaching me about healing and what healing is and is not. For the next 8-10 issues of this newsletter, I will share with you what I have been taught by my teacher of Tai Yi on the subject of healing. In this issue I want to share with you the essence of my teacher and my relationship with him over the last 27 years.

On January 5, 2009, I was with my teacher when he shared with me this year (2009) was his time to depart the physical. I had known for a few years he was planning on leaving the physical plane, but now I knew it was certain. He told me that day he would share the precise time and place before his departure, so I would be there with him when he departed. I spent as much time as I could with him, not so much as a teaching although it was, but in just being with him. We talked much about the past, my past resistance to creating a school of healing, and the importance of keeping Tai Yi pure. We talked a lot about the future where he would be journeying to, the home he had prepared for himself for after he left the physical, and the future of Life Energy Flow Tai Yi School of Healing. I was with him on July 6 of this year, when he made the transition into the non physical. I arrived several hours before he left. I sat in front of him as he sat in the lotus position. He took hold of my hands and told me he had given instructions to the elders of the village, a short distance away, to care for his body and the physical structure he lived in. He was highly regarded in the village, some saw him as a holy man, an avatar. He saw himself as a small old Chinese man with no labels, and no name to be shared with others.

He instructed me, "Never return to this place, meaning where he lived. This structure has served a purpose for us to share, but soon I will be gone. The elders will dismantle this structure and the vegetation will return as it was before." He squeezed my hands and looked me deep in the eyes and said, "You have been my student for many years, you have been my friend for many years on this journey. I entrust you with the teachings of life I have shared with you, I entrust you to keep Tai Yi pure. Know this my beloved, when you have completed and it is your time to journey home, I will be there and hold your hands as you hold mine." He took a deep breath, closed his eyes, and lifted up out of his small old body and stood there beside me. Then he gave me the traditional Tai Yi bow. There was a flash of light, a loud sound like thunder, and he was gone. I have only shared this with ones of my immediate family. I have not had the emotional strength to review these events I shared with my teacher until now. So for the next 8-10 newsletters I will share with you the essence of my Tai Yi teacher, and the many lessons he taught me on healing. I will also be putting many of these lessons in our new upcoming web site, Life Energy Flow Tai Yi School of Healing...Hossca

Jonah Question and Answer

What about the dinosaurs? What is their story?

Sandi Madison, Deming, Washington

Beloved, as we stated in our message “Nature of the Beast”. The third dimension is an evolutionary dimension for the physical realm of plant and animal kingdoms. The animal, insect, and plant life that does not evolve will devolve or slowly deteriorate (become extinct) over time. The earth goes through cycles of cleansing. As we have stated before, global warming is not new, nor is it the sole cause of humans. Humans have increased the cycle and timing of the deteriorating earth conditions. The earth, solar system, and galaxy move through cycles of change, cycles of cleansing. That which is not evolving will devolve. Life cannot stagnate and expect to evolve. What happened to the dinosaurs? Some species ceased to be because of rapid global warming, causing a shift of the electromagnetic field creating much volcanic activity increasing greenhouse gases. This occurred over a period of time where species became endangered, extinct. Some dinosaurs evolved, some did not. Those who did not, ye may find their remains buried in the earth. This was not a single event as some have theorized, but rather a rapid increase in deteriorating earth conditions. If life attempts to evolve without conforming to its natural environment then it devolves. Humans have the same choice...Jonah

Hello Jonah, I was hoping you could clear something up for me. With 1% of the world population owning forty % of the wealth on the planet, where peoples needs are not met and some starve, it seems to me that our economic money system, Fractional-reserve banking and profit motivation is nothing more than a method of enslavement by creating unnecessary lack in many peoples lives and burying them in debt they will never be free from. I am having a hard time understanding how the elites who make their trillions from an economic system that is built to rob nations and enslave the world population with debt, are manifesting wealth in their lives simply by having thoughts of abundance. These are the same people who use subliminal influence to keep us from our full higher potential. If a person is wealthy from dishonest means as stealing from others, is their wealth due to thoughts of abundance or from theft, or is it all the same? And is a thief simply blessed with his abundance because of his thoughts of such? Dave Janda, Westminster, Colorado

Beloved, the word abundance is not being understood. Change this word in your question to greed. True abundance is not about money, power, or greed. First and foremost abundance to be obtained is an abundance of spirit, abundance of love, and abundance of compassion. And yes, through this one may or may not create an abundance of monies. The true purpose of creating abundance is to share with others what ye have learned. To share with others your abundance of spirit, love, your abundance of compassion and yes even your abundance of monies. Now to address your question in terms of greed, yes your world is out of balance. It is so; one percent does control forty percent of the wealth on the planet, wealth meaning monies, properties. That is not to state none of the one percent have an abundance of spirit, love, and compassion. Some do, most do not. Many use greed and yes subliminal influence to keep one from developing their own inner abundance. We will be speaking on this at the next Intensive “The Sixth Secret.” Much subliminal influence is being used to keep ones in a state of submission, a state of spiritual poverty. Can a person become wealthy from dishonest means as stealing from others? Indeed. Is it not the wealthy, the elite who make the laws of your land? They attempt to make thievery an honest profession. But these live in spiritual poverty, they have forgotten the true abundance of spirit, love, and compassion. Subliminal influence is being used and will greatly increase. We have spoken of the elite, the ones who use wealth to control others. Listen to our message “Let the Journey Begin.” What about those who are not of great wealth, who are not part of the elite? What about ones who use thievery in the name of spirituality? What about ones who steal what ye call recorded messages, another’s creativity, those who steal written books and take it as their own, or state they are sharing it with others for spiritual reasons? Is this not also thievery? The only difference is the amount of theft, there is no difference between the types of thievery. Thievery is thievery. Each one must be willing to look within them self.

Have they subtly been programmed to follow the elite, but justify it in the name of spirituality? Listen to our message "Lie, Cheat, and Steal, a Pathway to Enlightenment???"...Jonah

Questions for future Newsletters

Jonah, thank you for "Nature of the beast". I'm asking about Matrix Energetics, a healing technique. Is this a 4th Dimensional attempt to access quantum physics for healing? This appears to access the wave function domain where pure potentiality exists, pulling in possible solutions through intent and then allowing for a reconfiguration of the atomic structure of the body. The effects are often dramatic, but perhaps short lived. Is this because there is/are missing elements in this approach? Or because our belief systems do not honor and allow for the results? Michael Bohoskey, Durango, Colorado

Jonah a Unified Field Theory is obviously the attempt to mathematically express how the universe works, including quantum mechanics and relativity, micro and macro functioning of energy, all in one beautiful, elegant formula. But as you say, we are attempting to accomplish this from a 3rd dimensional viewpoint/consciousness. And the strings of string "theory" are linked to knowingness, a 4th dimensional soul, heartfelt knowingness, which opens the mind to comprehend the patterns we seek. Can it be done? A unified field formula? I had a dream that it was accomplished. But can it be done in mathematical form? Michael Bohoskey Durango, Colorado

Dear Jonah,

Thank you so much for your message "Nature of the Beast"! When you refer to the elite, you call them "speakers"- who or what exactly are they speakers for, what energy or intelligence is behind all of this nonsense? What exactly are the children being programmed to do when they "walk away from everything they know"? And why? Is this a global phenomenon, mostly in Western society, or targeted solely in the US? How can we best lessen this influence on all of our children? What is the significance of the dates you referred to that are being programmed? And finally, the spiritual amnesia you describe, when one makes a choice against the heart and knowingness, it seems like you are describing a process that brought all of us to the third dimension - is it a commonality we all share? Thank you for being here for us during this critical time of change!

Jackie Lloyd, Ramona, California

Jonah, what's the real story behind the blue spiral in the sky over Norway? Is it linked to the tetrahedron-shaped object over Kremlin? Thanks Matt Spaeth, Lyons, Colorado
