What is the mind of God? How can humans, who use very little of their mind power, comprehend God or become at one with God, the Mind of God? Jonah goes into detail on what is the Mind of God. The mind is not to be confused with the brain or brain power. The Mind of God takes you on a journey to more deeply understand your connection to God and God's connection to you.

Jonah Question and Answer

We have had numerous requests for us to reprint the following question from Beth and answer from Jonah. This was first published in the Jonah Newsletter spring of 1998, a year before the Columbine school shootings. We left the question as it was received.

Dear Mr. Jonah, my heart is breaking, please can you answer my question. Why are children killing children? What is makin this happen? First in Mississippi, then in Kentucky, where next? I asked my pastor why does God allow this, and he told me he did not know, it must be Gods will. Well Mr. Jonah, for the first time in my life I told him I can't believe that. My cousin told me about you years ago and said you know spirit things. Please don't think me an old rambling woman. My grandchildren are the age of these children who were killed, if these had been my grandchildren I don't know if I could continue to live, please does God have an answer. May God bless you...Beth

Beloved, indeed there is an answer, but the answer is not an answer many want to hear. Children killing children, adults killing children, children killing adults. For a child to kill a child; that child must be taught to kill, but before that child is taught to kill, that child is taught to hate, and before that child is taught to hate that child is taught not to express his feelings, and before that child is taught not to express his feelings, he is taught by example how to absorb anger, resentment, and hopelessness. How many parents in your western culture give up their responsibility of raising a child to the talking box (TV)? How many children learn to absorb emotions from the talking box? Indeed how many killings does a child absorb in their mind and emotions throughout their childhood? Many say it is the fault of the talking box, indeed where is the responsibility of the parent to tell the talking box to stop, yes ye call it turn it off. The talking box is just a means of expression of the mass consciousness. If the mass consciousness did not want what was on the talking box then it would change. It is the responsibility of the parent or the one or ones who have taken responsibility to raise and teach a child, the power and responsibility of choice, and the results of choices made. Many children do not understand the power of choice. They are not taught the responsibility of choice. When a child is not loved, that child knows he is not loved. That feeling turns to anger and anger leads to many deep levels of pain that can erupt in many different forms of destruction. Yes beloved, this event will occur again, and again, and again. We find the mass consciousness looking for a solution, and that solution to be found by the mass consciousness will be to kill the child who kills a child. Yes, your world calls this teaching by example. We well understand the destructive energies being presented to the family unit. We are not just speaking of the mother, father, child family unit but the greater family unit, the soul family unit. If ye choose to be a parent to a child, and yes an accident is a choice, ye are also choosing to take responsibility to love and teach by example to that child. To avoid this responsibility is to create great levels of karma. Indeed, it is to let go of the old belief of ownership of a child. Ownership meaning carrying the consciousness I will teach this child what to do, when to do it, and how to do it. I will be the one to decide what this child will become, whom this child can love, what religion to belong to, and what to believe. The opposite of this belief is to take no responsibility of teaching this child how to love, indeed it is positive to love, even to love those who do not love ye. Beloved, if ye see a child in need, give need. If ye see a child without love, offer that child love. If ye see a child seeking direction, offer direction, for that child is not just a child of another human, that child is a child of the human race...Jonah

Dear Jonah,

These last years I've been reading a lot about the Nazi Period and the Holocaust and I want to ask you what really happened those years. 6.000.000 Jewish people were killed in a very painful way. Is it possible that apart from the individuals a whole nation can choose to learn through so much pain? It is also said that the Holocaust wouldn't have existed without the help from the occupied by the Nazis countries. What is the origin of this hatred against the Jews and of persecution against them through the years?

Thank you very much, Rozina Berkner, Athens, Greece

Beloved, that ye call the Nazi Period would also be called Group Consciousness from deep seated fear and anger. Indeed, it was a time of monetary collapse, or what we call redistribution of the monies. This is occurring again. When one is in deep fear and anger they want to blame someone, for indeed when one is in deep fear and anger they choose not to look at themselves, but rather they look for another. This is a subconscious tool for the mind to preserve the deep fear and anger as an illusionary hope of protection.

During this time ones of the Jewish race held positions in your German banking institutions. As many have claimed, they were not the primary cause of the monetary collapse, but they did have an involvement. As we stated, the monetary collapse or redistribution of the monies was a result of the war ye would now call World War I, but this was not called World War I until after World War II. The primary energy involved in this collapse is the one many call the Mother Church of Rome. Much has been hidden of the involvement of this church in the redistribution of the monies, and promoting the blame on the Jews. This church has a long history of creating conflicts, wars, monetary collapses, and placing the blame on others, primarily the Jewish race. The church uses the excuse the Jewish race is responsible for the death of Jesus. Indeed this is an illusion perpetrated by this church for much of this history. (There is more history prior to the time frame of Jesus; we shall speak of this at a later time). Listen to our message "A Man Called Jesus." During what ye call the Nazi Period many died, including the gypsies, homosexuals, and other religious sects that were not accepting the teachings of the Mother Church, or the Nazi propaganda to surrender one's human rights of freedom of expression.

Just as ones can create karma on a personal level, societies, countries, religions, all levels of group consciousness can and do create group karma. Indeed, much group karma was being played out during this time ye call the Nazi Period. This does not mean each person must go through this karma. One can exist in a location of group karma and not be affected. The difference being, does the individual allow their consciousness to be controlled by the group consciousness? Does the individual allow their consciousness to be control by fear and anger from the group consciousness? Listen to our message, "Individuality." Beloved, listen well to this statement, "That which was is until understood and healed." The events of the past have not been understood; therefore they have not been healed. That which is not healed will be experienced again. What choices have been presented to ye, choices ye ignored, chose on some level not to see? Did ye miss it? If one did miss it, we will be speaking on this subject, "Did Ye Miss It?" Remember beloved, this is your life, and this is about the quality of your life. We do not teach ones how to survive, but rather how to thrive. The opportunities coming your way, the human way, will bring about one of two options. One is ye will need to learn to survive, and the second ye will learn to thrive, physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. We well understand which ye would prefer, what the question is, which will ye choose?...Jonah
